

Career Discussion

Explore the World of Photojournalism!

Join us in the Career Center

Thursday, March 30th during Advisement

Joy Malone is an award winning photographer and photography professor. She obtained her BA from St. John's University and her MFA in Fine Art Photography from Academy of Art University.

As a photojournalist her work has been published in the NY Times, the Wall Street Journal, Vibe, BuzzFeed, and appeared on 60 Minutes.

She also runs Joy Malone Photography where she shoots a little bit of everything from events, to family portraits, to school photography, fashion, etc. Her fine art photography is collected domestically and has sold into private European collections.

Scan the QR CODE or visit the CAREER CENTER CANVAS
page to sign up!

